

CARLISLE ACADEMY
INTEGRATIVE EQUINE
THERAPY & SPORTS

INTERNATIONAL US USA
PARA-EQUESTRIAN DRESSAGE
CENTERS OF EXCELLENCE

Join us for a two day Dressage & Para-Dressage Symposium!

We are thrilled to bring Hanneke Gerritsen, FEI 5* Paralympic Dressage Judge and Deputy Chair FEI Technical Committee, to Carlisle Academy for an educational and interactive symposium packed with information and training for riders and coaches, followed by a judged Schooling Show.

Friday & Saturday, June 2-3, 2017: Dressage & Para-Dressage Symposium
Sunday, June 4, 2017: Dressage & Para-Dressage Schooling Show

Carlisle Academy, 65 Drown Lane, Lyman, Maine

Hanneke began her career with horses at her father's farm. She has bred several talented dressage horses and is a trainer and coach to many high-performance athletes in Holland. Hanneke gives clinics all over the world. As a 5 Paralympic Dressage Judge, she performs a number of executive functions in the Para-Equestrian (PE) disciplines. She currently is serving as the Deputy Chair of the FEI Technical Committee, is Chair of the FEI Compensating Aids Panel, and is a Technical Deputy at the 2017 European Championships. She was a member of the Ground Jury at the 2008 Hong Kong Paralympics, a Technical Delegate at the 2010 World Equestrian Games in Kentucky, and most recently the Head of the Ground Jury at the 2016 Rio Paralympics. In addition to judging international competitions worldwide, Hanneke coached the Dutch Para-Equestrian Team from 2000 to 2004. Outside of her Para-Equestrian pursuits, Hanneke is a Grand Prix judge and a selector and trainer for new dressage judges at all levels.*

For more info, contact Carlisle Academy Head of School, Sarah Armentrout at 207-985-0374 or sarmentrout@carlisleacademymaine.com.