

CARLISLE ACADEMY
INTEGRATIVE EQUINE
THERAPY & SPORTS

MAINE

Join us for a Para-Dressage Symposium!

We are thrilled to bring Michel Assouline, USEF Head of Para-Equestrian Coach Development and High Performance Consultant, back to Carlisle Academy, an International Para-Dressage Center of Excellence.

Friday, October 20, 2017

Coach Development Program - Education/Lectures - $100/Coach

Saturday-Sunday, October 21-22, 2017

Athlete Training Days with Collaborative Coaching - $500/Athlete

Athlete and Coach scholarships are available. Veterans attend free of charge.

Full registration material available soon.

For more info, contact Carlisle Academy Head of School, Sarah Armentrout at 207-985-0374, sarmentrout@carlisleacademymaine.com.

MICHEL ASSOULINE

In May 2017, Michel became the Head of Para-Equestrian Coach Development and High Performance Consultant for the United States Equestrian Federation. He is a graduate of the French National Equestrian School, home of the Cadre Noir in Saumur and gained a vast international experience in the USA, France, Germany and the United Kingdom as an international dressage rider and trainer. Michel was long-listed to represent France at the Seoul Olympics and won the French National Championships in 2000. He has also scored numerous successes at International and National level. Michel was voted in 1995 UK Dressage

Trainer of the Year, and is a member of the International Dressage Trainers Club. In 2005 Michel became the British Para-Equestrian Dressage Team Coach and led Team GBR riders to win Team Gold medals at the 2005 European Championships, the 2007 World Championships, the 2008 Beijing Paralympic Games, the 2009 European Championships, the 2010 FEI World Equestrian Games, the 2011 FEI Europeans, the 2012 London Paralympic Games, the 2013 FEI Europeans, the 2014 FEI World Equestrian Games, the 2015 FEI Europeans and the 2016 Rio Paralympic Games.