July 29 & 30, 2021 | 9am-4pm

at Carlisle Academy Integrative Equine Therapy & Sports,
65 Drown Lane, Lyman, ME 04002

Join us for a USEF/USPEA Para-Equestrian Center of Excellence theme-based clinic and schooling show focused on training and competition strategies for athletes who are blind and visually impaired.

- Day 1 will feature international clinician and Founder of Connected Riding™, Peggy Cummings, known for her biomechanical approach which optimizes horse and rider harmony and connection. Peggy will be assisted by USEF Para-Dressage Coaches Sarah Armentrout & Ana O’Brien in working with para-dressage athletes.
- Day 2 will host a Carlisle Academy Para-Dressage Schooling Show where clinic riders may perform a Fix-a-Test with critique from “S” Judge, Judge, Grand Prix Competitor & USEF Silver Para-Dressage Coach and USEF Para-Dressage Coach Susanne Hamilton. Letter callers are available as needed. There is the option to submit videos for either USPEA or USEF virtual judging program.

Space is limited to 6 riders. Auditors are welcome. This seminar is eligible for continuing education credits towards the USEF Para-Dressage Coach Certificate Program.
