

PARA-DRESSAGE Summer Clinic & Schooling Show

National Classification Opportunity Available

August 13 & 14, 2022 | 9am-4pm

at Carlisle Academy, 65 Drown Lane, Lyman, ME 04002

Join us for a USEF Para-Dressage Center of Excellence Summer Clinic & Schooling Show! National Classification will be available to any incoming para-equestrians seeking sport classification.

- Day 1: The Summer Clinic Day will be led by Sarah Armentrout USEF Silver Level Para-Dressage Coach and Janet Smaldone, USEF Physiotherapist & USEF Para-Equestrian Classifier with a focus on athlete assessments, tips for compensating aids, and good biomechanics for horse and rider effectiveness and harmony. Athletes can bring their own mount or use one of Carlisle Academy's school horses. Each rider will have an opportunity to run through a para-dressage test-of-choice prior to the show day.
- Day 2: For the Para-Dressage/Dressage Schooling Show clinic riders may perform a Fix-a-Test two times with critique from Judge, Sarah O'Sullivan. Riders will be joining other dressage competitors for a community show.

For more information/registration: Sarah Armentrout, Head of School, (207)985-0374 or sarmentrout@carlisleacademymaine.com
